A CHANCE TO MAKE MONEY.

I have had wonderful success selling Dish Washers. Have not made less than $8 any day, and some days $15. Nearly every family buys one. They are cheap, durable, and do the work perfectly. You can wash and dry the dishes for a family in two minutes, without touching your hands to a dish. I believe any lady or gentleman, anywhere, can do as well as I am doing, as I had no experience. Anyone can sell what everyone wants to buy, and every family seems to want a Dish Washer. Write to the Iron City Dish Washer Co., E. E. Pittsburg, Pa. They will send you full particulars and help you as they did me. I do not write my experience boasting, but because I think it a duty I owe to others in these hard times.

DEAR EDITOR OF THE EVANGELIST:—This is my twelfth letter to the EVANGELIST this year. We have nice weather this winter. Our school teacher was sick to-day so there was no school. Our King's Children Society at Mt. Zion numbers thirty-seven members; also is increasing in interest. Brother H. E. Faidley was here and preached a few sermons. I will answer Grace Overcash's question: Jesus came into the world to point out the way in which we should repent and believe on the Lord and be saved. I will close by asking a question: whom did Daniel say was the head of gold?

MAY HOLBEN.

CRETE, NEB., Dec. 9th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is a nice day only it is damp. Papa and mamma went to church. I had the tonsillitis and papa had the grippe. Although I have written my twelfth letter I will write another. Getting that prize has stirred me up wonderfully. Christmas is near. What are you expecting? We don't always get what we are expecting and sometimes we get more than we deserve. The little girl that answered my question in a letter that I wrote, I think she answered it very good.

Good-bye.

CLARENCE ZOOK.

MT. BLANCHARD, OHIO, Dec. 10, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my twelfth letter. I hope to gain the prize. I have only missed one day of school since it commenced. My aunt had a turkey-roast Thanksgiving.

They are having big meeting at Houcktown. I will ask a question: who came to Jesus by night? I must close for this time. Your friend,

DEAR EDITOR:—I will write again; this is my twelfth letter this year. We have a good King's Children meeting now. I will answer Grace Overcash's question: Jesus came into the world to save sinners. I will close. Good-bye. Your friend,

ADA SANGER.

MILLERSBURG, IA., Dec. 4th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is the twelfth letter I have written for the EVANGELIST this year. We are having very pleasant weather here now. We had preaching last Sunday. My aunt is coming to visit us soon. She lives in Iowa City. I will answer Ida Long's question: Jesus was nailed to the cross at 6 o'clock Friday morning; I will also answer Grace Overcash's question: Jesus came into the world to seek and to save the lost. How long did Jesus live on earth after his crucifixion, before he ascended to heaven?
